When you arrive on campus, please come to the Multipurpose Room in the Memorial Union to claim your books.

The distribution schedule is as follows:

Books may be picked up Friday, August 31st through Monday, September 3rd from 10 am to 4 pm. Orders remaining after Monday afternoon can be picked up at the Post Office in the Memorial Union on Tuesday, September 4th.

Books and study aids which are optional or recommended will not be included with the required books. Some books may not be included because of late publishing/printing dates and/or late orders from faculty.

Books not claimed by Wednesday, September 5th (unless otherwise arranged) will be restocked and a $20 restocking fee will be charged to your credit card to help defray the cost of processing your order. Please do not call to find out how much your books will cost. Until your books are actually pulled for you, there is no way to calculate the total cost. We will notify you with the final cost on FirstClass.
